

I would hate to see Indiana's telephone privacy act weakened. If we are currently doing business with banks, etc. they send us information re: offers in the mail. That is enough! I feel we do not need to be called by these companies as well. Please help to maintain Indiana's telephone privacy act!